

BULKELEY HIGH
HARTFORD, CONN.
CLASS OF 1973

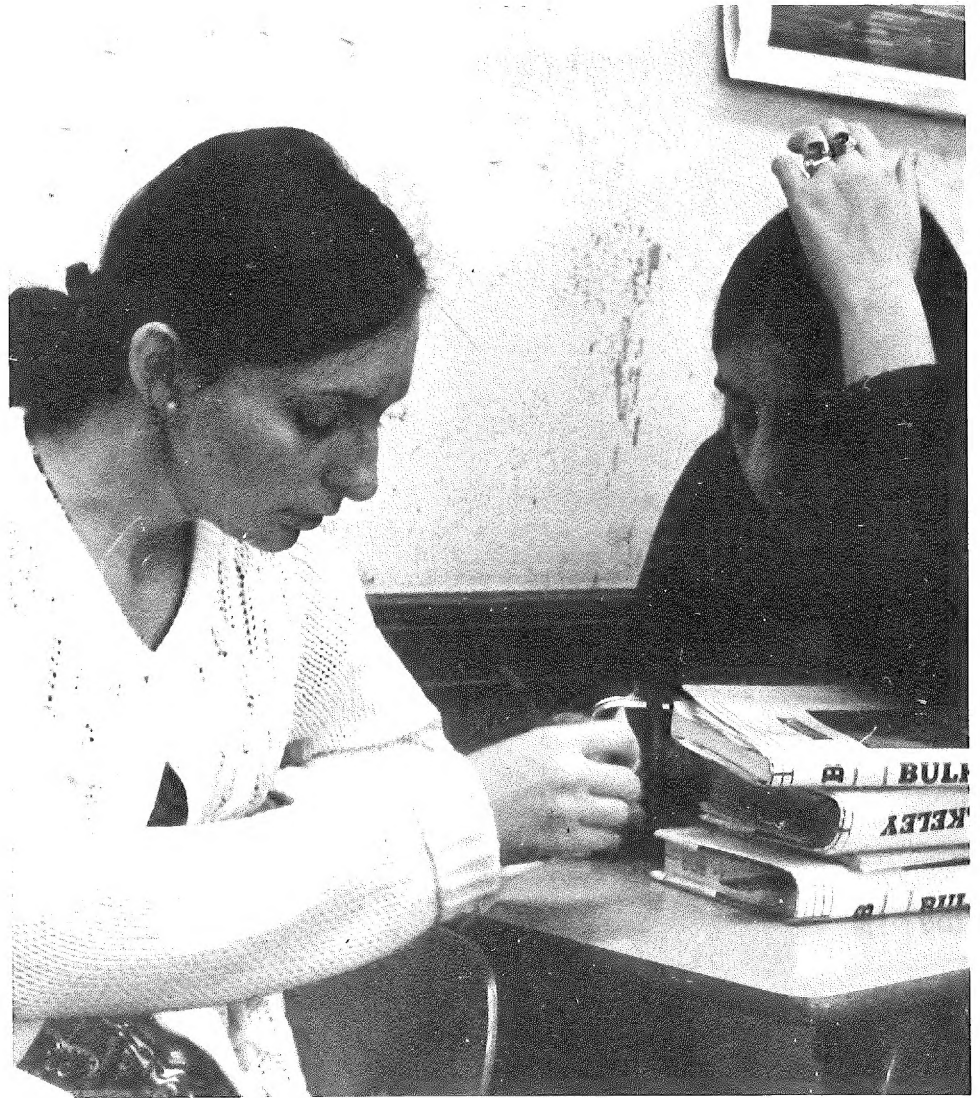

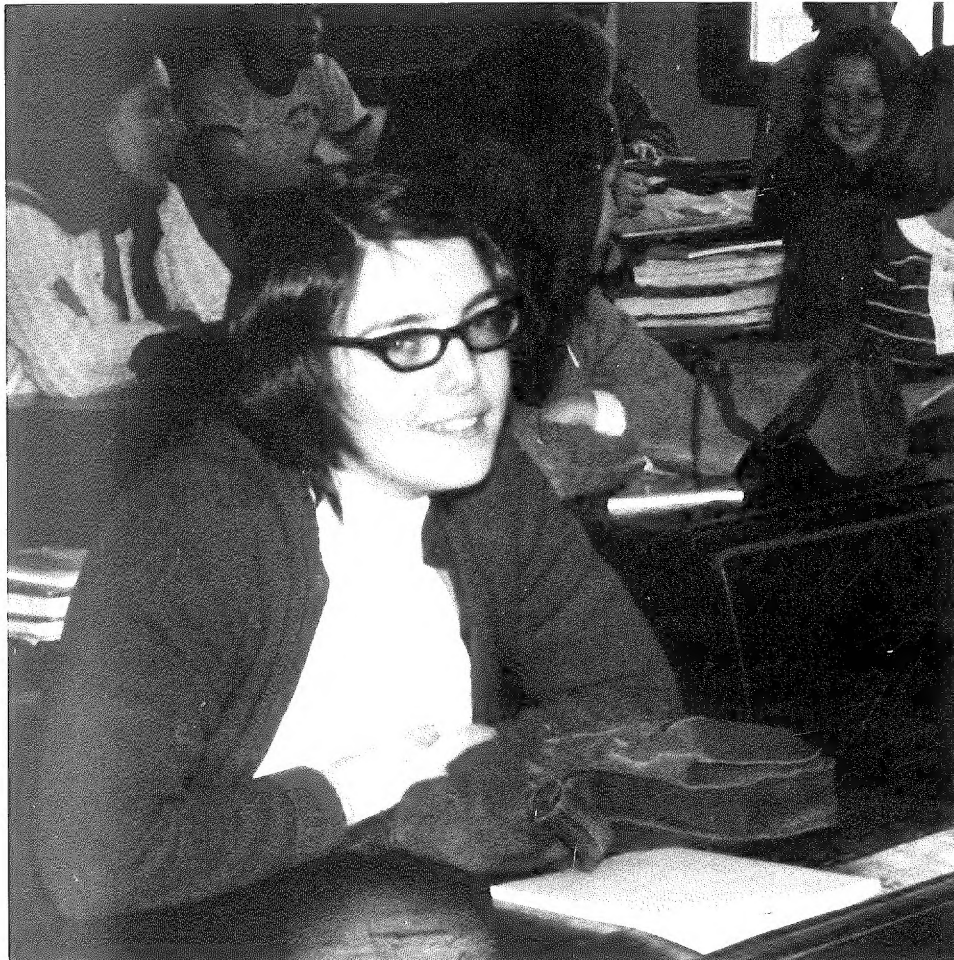

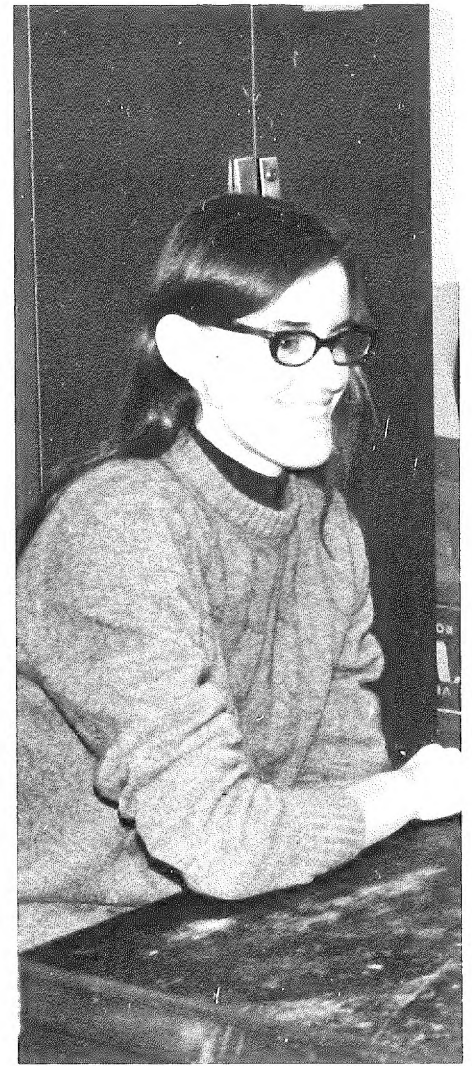

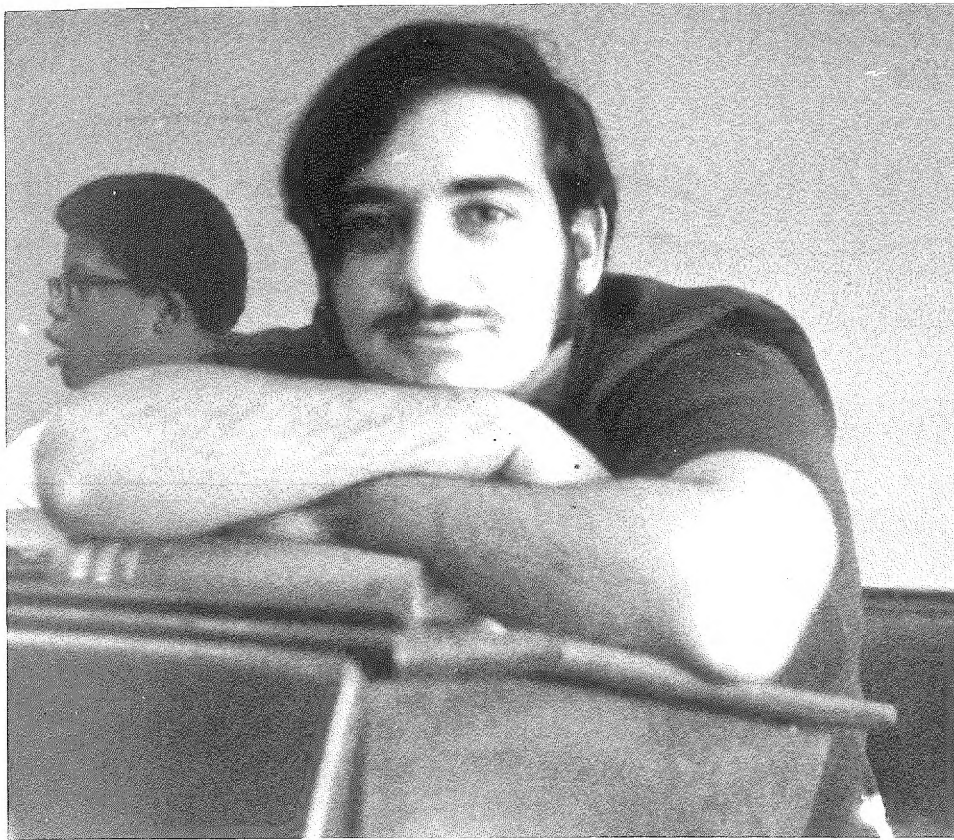

beginnings,
academics,
seniors,
happenings,
athletics,

*And I know
that on the inside
what I used to be I'm not —*

anymore.

Don Mclean

in the past four years we have become individuals —

emotionally,
intellectually,
each of us
a new person —
each of us different.

for some, becoming individual has been a struggle for others
the struggle will continue — never ending.

yet,
the attempt to find yourself
must come from within.

there are those among us who possess the rare quality to display a unique talent.
in search of
themselves,
these people will benefit from their ability.
but,
society also benefits.

each of us
must recognize our own abilities
before we can share them with others.

friendships
at Bulkeley
will not be forgotten.

when we look back besides remembering
our friends
we will remember,
donut breaks at Bess Eatons
early lunches at various local grinder shops (all within five minutes of B.H.S.)
and the arrival of our private McDonalds
on Brainard Road.

other favorite spots for relaxation included, a private, backyard patio, the kienle room, front lawns of friendly neighbors, spacious parking facilities on Benton Street, and last, but not least, "sex-discriminatory smoking lounges."

among those who have influenced
us,
are special friends,
teachers.
they spend their time attempting to gain our attention.
many of them
have.

we are inspired to learn and prepared for life
by those who care
to reach us.

since freshman year
we have seen
school become a place for communicating.
our voices are no longer
silent.
a better, more relaxed atmosphere for learning is becoming predominant
at Bulkeley.

each of our friends have given a part of themselves
meaningful enough
to affect us
permanently.

from Bulkeley
and its family
we have hopefully gained a set of values good enough to last a lifetime.

*Rejoice, Rejoice,
we have no choice but — to carry on . . .*

HUMAN RELATIONS

THE HUMAN RELATIONS CLUB sponsored activities for the goal of student unity. While the Student Council concentrated on student government, the Human Relations concentrated on student life.

"All this candy is paying off."

For the first time, Bulkeley had a party running for Student Council offices. After their win by a large margin, they revised the Council's constitution and sought to unite the school.

remember when . . .

We first came to BHS from our grammar schools — and what a change! For one, things were a lot more liberal and a lot more fun. There were new faces and activities. Who thought McDonald's would be "our kind of place" and Bess Eaton's a good spot for mid-morning snacks? BHS spirit was there when needed. South always brought the best out in us, but Hartford High and our place in the basketball tournament could do the same. We sure did a lot of funny things: we got lost on car rallies, got on our asses (jackasses that is), and lit our fires with sculptured candles. Of course there were dances, assemblies, rallies, Captain Bulkeley and Torch Nights. BHS suffered a face lift. Our "maple leaves" were cut down and our little babies (the portables) were born. Fake I.D.'s are no longer necessary because the 18 year old legal age takes care of it all. We're adults!

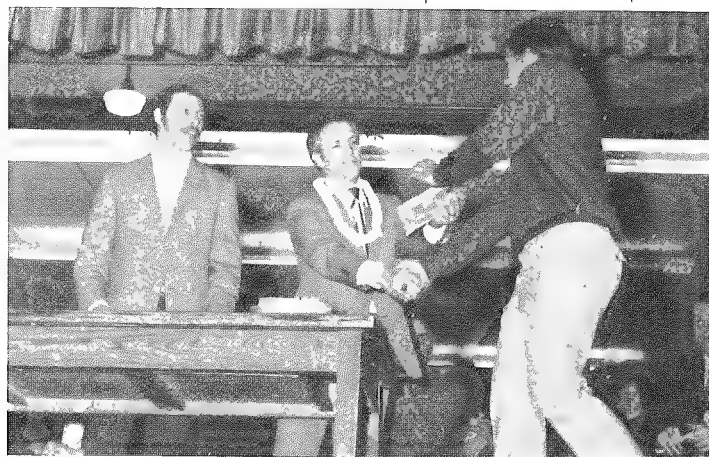

P.S. Don't forget, the time . . .

We may be apathetic, but we came in third in the WPOP School Spirit Contest

FOOTBALL

Bulkeley power in action, with a team of young men all striving to do their best, and a devoted coach who helps to make it all happen.

Athletes in action with a record of 3-6, however the Bulldogs had the power to beat South Catholic by a score of 12-0, then went on to upset Hartford High 6-0, making dreams of winning into reality, and the taste of victory sweet.

SOCCER

CROSS COUNTRY

Seemingly unaware of the beauty which surrounds them, Bulkeley's female runners compete, fighting off and defeating most opposition.

With much effort and determination, co-captains Pat Collier and Laz
Fitzgerald set the pace for a winning season.

BADMINTON

Although spectators were few, and team effort unnoticed, the satisfaction each girl participating received proved reward enough.

TABLE TENNIS

Competing but once a year, the table tennis team, unshaken by the finality of an instant winning or diligently for the big day.

SOFTBALL

GYMNASTICS

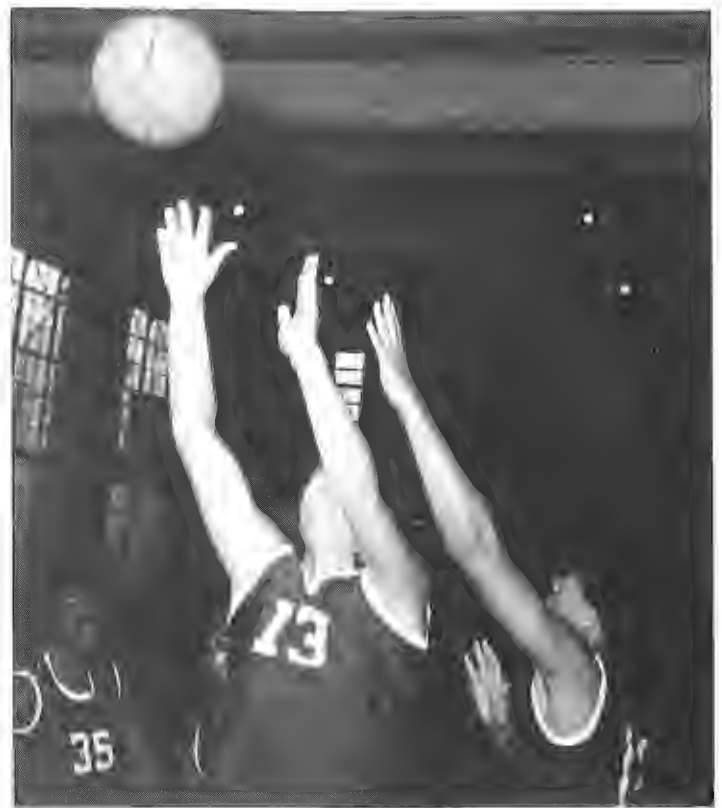

Early mornings,

While most are turning

fearless gymnasts mount for their grueling competition.

BASKETBALL

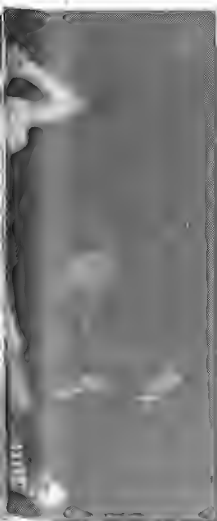

Armed with determination, perseverance, and a sense of fair play, along with anticipation for what looked to be another winning year, Bulkeley's Girls' Basketball Team began their season. Stifled by the lack of a practice area, our female hoopsters temporarily overcame this difficulty and managed their first win over Manchester.

With the team's welcomed success came the not so welcomed retirement of Coach Helen Reynolds and the rebuilding of a new team with replacement Coach Deborah Horzigan.

After suffering untimely injuries (crushing all hopes of a successful season) and struggling diligently to reaffirm their standing, the Bulkeley cagers managed to capture once again the City Series while finishing with a record of 5 wins and 6 losses.
